

PERSONAL DATA and COOKIES

25/05/2015

This policy indicates how Little Big Connection uses and protects the personal data that you give us during the visit of our website. This policy also deals with the use of cookies.

LBC represented by mister Paul Viera makes a commitment to protect the personal data and to respect the private life according to the law N 78-87 of January 6th, 1978, the law N 2004-801 of August 6th, 2004, the article L. 226-13 of the Criminal code and European directives 95/46 and 2002/58.

To watch the conformity of the processing of personal data, LBC chose to appoint a Data Protection Correspondent (DPC): CIL CONSULTING WWW.CIL-CONSULTING.COM

LBC invites you to regularly verify the update of this policy on this page.

BY WHOM AND HOW YOUR PERSONAL DATA ARE COLLECTED?

Little Big Connection collects your personal data via the registration form, via your profile, when you consult and interact with the pages of the website.

You also have the possibility of connecting you through your Viadeo or LinkedIn account. For your information, this application programmable interface (API) is thus informed about the URL of the site by which you connect. LBC invites you to verify beforehand the policy of confidentiality of these API.

WHICH DATA ARE WE COLLECTING?

LBC collects only the personal data strictly necessary for the realization of the purpose of the processing namely: to insure the smooth running and the use of the Website, to supply an optimal Service, to improve the functioning and the services of the Website.

For that purpose LBC collects the following information:

- Your address and phone number via the registration form;
- Your (optional) photo and the information which you fill or download via an API (Viadeo or a LinkedIn) in your profile;
- The professional information which the law imposes to verify for a relation of subcontracting;
- Your comments and messages posted on online communities;
- Your publications;
- Your recommendations of the other members;
- Statistics of attendance of LBC's Website;

The compulsory or optional character of the communication of the requested data is mentioned on the Form for every field of collection. The registration on the Website is validated only if the compulsory fields are filled in.

WHAT DO WE MAKE WITH THE COLLECTED INFORMATION?

LBC does not transfer your personal data to third parties without your authorization, subject to:

- the communication of the public profile of every Member, according to the configuration defined by him as well as to the purpose of the Website and the Service,
- cases where the communication of such data is imposed by the regulations in force, in particular at the request of the judicial authority.

This information will allow us to know you better. They will be used for the following purposes:

Little Big Connection

- Make you benefit from the proposed services and to personalized and relevant features
- To allow you to share your information and to get in touch with other members,
- To allow you to manage your account,
- To inform you about the existence or about the evolution of our products and services.

We may be brought to transmit the personal data to our partners located in France or within the E.U.

PERSONAL DATA STORAGE

The personal data of the members are kept for a duration limited to the realization of the purpose for which they were collected.

LBC has the quality of data host; as such and according to the article 6. I.2 of the law for the Confidence in the Digital Economy of June 21st, 2004, LBC has the obligation to hold and to keep for a duration of 12 months, the data likely to allow the identification of whoever contributed to the creation of the contents or one of the contents of the services of which he is a Provider.

SAFETY OF THE PERSONNAL DATA

The Administrator of the Website has access to all the features of this one and can act in particular as a provider or as a customer in the following cases:

- technical problem
- act against those conditions or of illegal use of the Website by one of the members.

LBC strives to secure the access and the use of the Website and the services that depend on it, by taking into account protocols, in accordance with custom on the subject.

LBC takes the adapted measures in physical and logical securities of the personal data that you supply him, to get a reasonable insurance that the access to the systems and to the Personal data of the Members is limited to the authorized people and that the confidential information of the Members is protected against any use.

The data are hosted at a French provider on a dedicated server, which is located within the European Union: OVH, BP 80157, 59053 Roubaix.

From the inherent nature of Internet and the security's risks that are attached to it, LBC cannot neither assure nor guarantee the data security that you pass on. LBC cannot guarantee the absence of violation of its technical, physical or logical safety mechanisms.

Every member undertakes to keep secrets his unique password and the information concerning its account and also to control at any time the access to its e-mail address.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

According to data protection acts of 06/01/1978, every Member has a right of access and a right of rectification of his personal data treated by the Website. He also has the right to oppose, on just grounds, to the communication of his data to third parties.

However LBC can be opposed to obviously excessive requests, in particular by their number, their repetitive or systematic character.

Contact: the Member can exercise these rights by writing to the following e-mail address cil@littlebigconnection.com or at the following mailing address: Little Big Connection, 201 Faubourg Saint-Honoré, 75008 Paris

Every person proving his identity can at any time:

Little Big Connection

- Obtain communication by LBC under an accessible form, his personal data ;
- Receive a copy of those data;
- Obtain the rectification, the update or the deletion of inaccurate personal data
- Modify or delete the data made public via the profile;
- Decide to delete the linking with his LinkedIn or Viadeo profile;
- Control the publications that he wishes to see published on the Website;
- Modify his preferences to control the visibility of its public profile;
- Delete his account.

USE OF COOKIES

The Site uses the technology of "cookies". A cookie is a text file capable of being recorded in your terminal during the consultation of an on-line service with browser software.

A cookie does not allow us to identify you. However, it records information that you can supply us via our form of contact as well as information relative to the browsing of your computer on our site (the pages which you consulted, the date and the hour of the consultation, etc.). We are able to read that information of your prior visits without you having to log in each time. LBC also uses these cookies for statistical analyses of attendance of the website.

We inform you that you can object to the recording of cookies by configuring your browser in the section Internet tool / options then depending on each browser, by clicking on safety, confidentiality or privacy.

LBC draws however your attention on the fact that the deactivation of these cookies will prevent you from benefiting of all the features of the Website.